This star-studded lineup features the powerhouse vocals of Rushney Ferguson, Carmen Maarman, Zolani Mahola, Amanda Strydom, Nur Abrahams, Sean de Vries, Loukmaan Adams, Emo Adams, and the ever-passionate Alistair Izobell, who brings his deep respect and admiration for Kramer's legacy to the stage. Each of these artists has been deeply influenced by Kramer's work, his bold storytelling, and his ability to weave South African narratives into unforgettable melodies.

The Artists & Their Connection to David Kramer

For Zolani Mahola, whose voice has echoed across global stages, Kramer's influence runs deep—his fearless authenticity setting a precedent for storytelling through song. Amanda Strydom, a powerhouse in her own right, shares a history with Kramer's theatrical brilliance, making this tribute a full-circle moment.

Rushney Ferguson and Carmen Maarman, two of Cape Town's most vibrant vocalists, bring their own fire to the stage, carrying forward the next chapter of Kramer's influence. The soulful tones of Nur Abrahams and Sean de Vries will add depth to the night's musical journey, blending harmonies that pay homage to an era of theatre that defined generations.

And then, of course, there's the Adams brothers—Emo and Loukmaan, who have lived and breathed the kind of authentic storytelling that Kramer pioneered. Their connection to his music is undeniable, as is their ability to bring his songs to life with electrifying energy.

At the helm of it all is the dynamic Alistair Izobell, whose career has been intrinsically linked to Kramer's influence. From the early days of musical theatre to now standing center stage in a tribute of this magnitude, Izobell's passion for celebrating South African greats shines through.

A night that will move you – Whether you're a lifelong Kramer fan or just discovering his genius, this show will leave you mesmerized.

IZOBELLS HELPING HANDS: RESTORING DIGNITY, ONE DONATION AT A TIME!

A simple act of kindness can create ripples of change. This is the heart of Izobell's Helping Hands, a non-profit organization dedicated to uplifting communities through essential support. Led by the passionate and ever-determined Alistair Izobell, this initiative has once again made an incredible impact—this time, with the unwavering support of the Gift of the Givers.

The latest distribution round saw a vital necessity reach those who need it most: sanitary pads. For many women and young girls in underserved communities, access to sanitary products is not a given. The Haven Night Shelter was among the recipients, ensuring that individuals facing homelessness are not left without dignity and care. With each distribution, we're not just handing out products; we're restoring confidence, empowerment, and a sense of belonging.

Collaboration remains at the core of this movement. Gift of the Givers, a powerhouse in humanitarian aid, played an integral role in making this round possible. Their commitment to service amplifies the reach and impact of Izobell's Helping Hands, ensuring that no one is left behind.

But the work is far from over. Every donation, no matter how small, fuels this initiative. Whether it's sanitary pads, financial contributions, or simply spreading awareness, your involvement has the power to transform lives. Imagine a future where no student has to miss school due to a lack of basic hygiene products, where everyone is afforded dignity, regardless of their circumstances.

Ready to be part of the change? Reach out, contribute, and stand with us in creating a future where dignity is never a luxury—it's a right. Together, we're not just giving—we're restoring hope, one donation at a time.

From the Editor's Desk: The Vision Behind CT So Where2

By Lamees May
Editor, CT So Where2 Newspaper

Charlene Petersen, with over two decades of experience in corporate leadership, brings a rare approach to our operations—streamlining processes in ways that position CT So Where2 as both sharp and sustainable. Her shift from boardroom to business ownership allows her to lead with agility in spaces that require real-world impact.

Alistair Izobell, our Creative Director, is the visionary behind this platform. His ideas aren't just forward-thinking—they're industry-shifting. We simply help bring them to life in our own lanes.

As for me, I sit quietly in the background as Editor—curating stories, refining layouts, and connecting the dots between brands and visibility. My background in marketing and business development gives me the lens to shape each feature as a chance for elevation. Because here, we're not just printing paper—we're building platforms that move businesses forward.

More Than a Newspaper —A Business Catalyst

At CT So Where2, we're not just putting ink to paper—we're building momentum. This platform was created with vision and opportunity at its core. It's where strategy meets creativity, where industries find their voice, and where visibility turns into real growth.

With Alistair Izobell's creative direction setting the tone, Charlene Petersen's strategic edge sharpening our focus, and my love for meaningful storytelling guiding the narrative—we're here to make sure this isn't just another newspaper. It's a launchpad.

This isn't about titles or ticking boxes. It's about showing what's possible when intention is matched with execution. Whether you're just starting out or already scaling, the question we ask is: How are you showing up to lead, elevate, and impact the spaces you're in?

Because here at CT So Where2, we don't just share success stories—we help shape them.
